 - or
 - (ii) Where appeal against such order has been filed and dismissed, within seven days of the dismissal of appeal.
- (3) Upon due compliance by the licensee with all obligations under the licence, the amount of security or such part thereof, which is not forfeited as aforesaid, shall be returned to the licensee after the termination of the licence.

8. Disposal of stock when licence is cancelled or suspended:-

When licence issued under this Order is cancelled or suspended, the stocks of that scheduled commodity available with the licensee in respect of which contravention has taken place, shall be disposed of as per directions of the licensing authority;

9. Restriction on possession of Onions :-

With a view to ensuring that the Onions are available in the market and unlimited stocks are not held by the dealers / Rice millers in their business premises without releasing them into the market, and to have a salutary effect on the availability and prices of Onions, no licensee shall either by himself or by an person on his behalf, store or have in his possession at any one time the commodities in excess of the quantities specified below except in the regulated Onion market yard.

Wholesalers:

- | | |
|----------------------|-------------|
| a) Category A Cities | 75 quintals |
| b) Category B areas | 40 quintals |
| c) Category C areas | 30 quintals |

Provided also that where any quantity of Onions is in transit, then, for the purpose of this sub-clause, such quantity shall not, during the period when such quantity is in transit, be deemed to have been included in the stocks of the dealer in whom the property in such quantity is retained during such transit in accordance with the terms of any contract or agreement in pursuance of which the quantity is put in such transit.

Provided that stock limits as indicated above shall not apply to a farmer / producer who cultivates them in his land.

10. Power of the State Government in special circumstances and issue of directions:-

- (1) Government with the prior concurrence of Central Government shall exercise the power and issue a general or special order, when it is considered necessary or expedient to do so for securing the availability of the Onions at fair prices throughout the State and when the price rise is found to be abnormal, the State Government shall interfere with the trade and tackle the crisis situation and contain the prices of Onions so as to ensure that common man gets the supply of Onions without lot of hindrance on the part of trade and specify at which rate the Onions shall be bought and sold within the State. Price fixation shall be done after adding incidentals etc. keeping in view the Minimum Support Price for the commodities communicated by the Central Government during the respective crop year.

(2) The Government, shall issue instructions or directions by way of general or special order for undertaking de-hoarding operations to mitigate the rising trend of prices of Onions, in accordance with the provisions of this Order in the larger public interest, for distribution as decided by the Marketing Department or Civil Supplies Department or Joint Collectors by evolving a separate distribution mechanism through Government Agencies. The dealers shall comply the orders of the Government.

(3) Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such directions may be issued to any dealer that Onions may be sold to only such persons or institutions, through such Government Agencies, in such quantities and at such intervals as the Commissioner, Commissioner of Civil Supplies, Marketing Collector or the licensing authority may by general or special order, direct.

11. Licensee not to purchase Onions at prices lower than the notified procurement price from farmers:-

Any person who holds a licence under this Order, or his agent or servant or any other person acting on his behalf and transacting business by purchasing Onions shall not purchase the Onions of fair average quality specifications at a price fixed, if any, at lower than the price notified, by the State Government or the Central Government.

12. Licensee not to sell schedule commodities at prices higher than maximum price fixed:

The licensee shall not sell the Onions at a price higher than the maximum price, if any, fixed therefor, from time to time by the Central Government or by the State Government.

13. Appeal:

(1) Any person aggrieved by an order of the Licensing Authority refusing to issue, re-issue or renew a licence or canceling or suspending a licence or forfeiting the security deposit under the provisions of this Order, may within thirty days of the date of receipt by him of the Order, appeal:-

(a) To the Joint Collector if such order is that of the District Supply Officer on the Tahsildar in districts.

(b) To the Chief Rationing Officer, if such order is that of District Supply Officer (City) or Assistant Supply Officer, in respect of twin cities of Hyderabad and Secunderabad.

Provided that in case of cancellation of a licence by the licensing authority on the ground of conviction by a Court of Law, no appeal against such cancellation shall lie to the Appellate Authority;

(2) No order shall be passed in appeal unless the aggrieved person has been given an opportunity of stating his case in writing and being heard in person;

(3) Pending the disposal of an appeal, the appellate authority may direct that the order refusing to renew a licence or the order canceling or suspending a licence shall not take effect, until the appeal is disposed of.

14. Revision:-

- (1) The State Government may on their own motion or on an application made to them, call for and examine the record of the subordinate officers to satisfy themselves, as to the regularity of such proceedings, or correctness, legality or propriety of any decision passed or made therein and if in any case it appears to the Government that any such decision or order should be modified, annulled or remitted for reconsideration, they may pass orders accordingly.
- (2) No order prejudicial to any person shall be passed under sub-clause (1) above, unless such person has been given an opportunity of making his representations.
- (3) The State Government may direct that the order refusing to renew a licence or the order cancelling or suspending a licence shall not take effect, until the revision is disposed of.

15. Powers of entry, search, seizure etc:-

- (1) The Licensing Authority or any other officer of the Revenue / Civil Supplies not below the rank of U.D. Cadre or any Commercial Tax Inspector or any officer of Police Department not below the rank of Sub-inspector in his respective jurisdiction, may with such assistance, if any, as he thinks fit or any Gazetted Officer of Vigilance and Enforcement Department;
 - (a) require the owner, occupier or any other person in charge of any place, premises, vehicle, or vessel in which he has reason to believe that any contravention of the provisions of this Order or of the conditions of the licence issued there-under has been, is being or is about to be committed, to produce any books, accounts or other documents showing transactions relating to such contraventions.
 - (b) enter, inspect or break open and search any place or premises, vehicle or vessel in which he has reason to believe that any contravention of the provisions of this Order or of the conditions of the licence issued there-under has been, is being or is about to be committed.
 - (c) seize any books of accounts and documents which in the opinion of the licensing authority or as the case may be, the authorized officer, would be useful for or relevant to any proceedings under this Order and return such books of accounts and documents within three months from the date of such seizure to the person from whom they were seized after taking or causing to be taken extracts from or copies thereof as certified by the person in form "D".
 - (d) search, seize and remove stocks of Onions in respect of which contravention has taken place; and the animals, vehicles, vessels or other conveyance used in carrying the said commodity in contravention of the provisions of this Order or of the conditions of the licence issued there under and thereafter take or authorize the taking of all measures necessary for securing the production of stocks of commodities and the animals, vehicles, vessels or other conveyance so seized before the Collector and for their safe custody pending such production.
- (2) The provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (Central Act 2 of 1974) regarding search and seizure shall, so far as may be, apply to searches and seizures under this clause.

16. Marginal variations in the Stocks at the time of inspection of business premises:

- (i) Mistakes in mathematical totaling;
- (ii) If the stock register does not show the place from which the stock was brought or sent but the information is available from any other register or document;
- (iii) If the stock register could not be maintained for any particular day due to sickness, pressure of work or unavoidable circumstances;
- (iv) When the variation between the book and the ground stock is upto 2% on the stock available at the time of inspection.
- (v) In the course of the normal transaction, if the licensee forgets to mention either the licence number or date on the bill or memo.

2. " Explanation" : If a wholesaler or retailer or dealer is able to demonstrate that part of his or her stocks are sourced from imports, then these would be excluded for the purpose of calculation of stock limits.

(ii) the purchase, sale or storage for sale of Onions under this Order on Government account or the Telangana State Civil Supplies Corporation, or the Girijan Cooperative Corporation or A.P. Markfed.

3. the sale by banks of stocks hypothecated to them, provided that the commodity is sold in accordance with the terms and conditions applicable to the hypothecators.
